In the Shadow of your wings
The Mothering of God

During this retreat there will be an opportunity to explore the Feminine nature of God through Scripture and beyond, then respond in reflection and creative activities.

Space will be given to explore the Island and follow it's rhythms.

A variety of creative resources will be available for you to try something new or if you have an unfinished creative "project" hiding in a drawer this may be the opportunity to bring it out and give it another go!

Jane Franklin is a Spiritual Director, Retreat Leader, a Voyager with the Celtic Community of Aidan and Hilda, on the Planning group of the Continuing the Journey Conference and a Listener at St Andrew's Holborn. Jane has long experience of using creativity in her own spiritual life and in spiritual direction and enjoys writing poetry: and she knows from her own experience that creativity is more about having fun than being perfect.
